STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—Two young men named Schreckongost, brothers, residing near Rural Village, Armstrong county, were struck by lightning on Wednesday afternoon of last week and instantly killed. They had been engaged in harvesting, and at the time of their sudden and terrible death were engaged in shocking wheat. A sudden storm coming up they were just about to quit work when the electric fluid descended and instantly deprived them of life. The one was a married man, with a family.
